The Weston A. Price Foundation invites submission of abstracts from all health professionals on a broad range of topics relating food and nutrition to health demonstrating the integration of practice, education and scholarship. Specific topics include but are not limited to incorporating nutrition into your practice, results of nutritional interventions you have made with a specific patient population, or patient teaching projects involving nutrition. All posters must represent your original work.

Poster Presentation: Abstracts selected for poster presentations will be displayed throughout the conference. Poster presentations should be self-contained tabletop displays. Please purchase tri-fold posters that stand upright on tables without additional support. Successful poster presentations include large posters with clear, colorful graphics and text clearly describing the methods, programs or practices pertaining to the theme of your presentation. Handouts describing your presentation, reference materials and your business card may be distributed. No other information including books or products for sale may be displayed or promoted in any way at your poster display.
